

Due to an administrative error, contributions to Cantor for Congress were duplicated on two separate 48 hour notices. In addition, an in-kind contribution was not reported during the 48 hour notice period. This failure was an oversight that occurred because the contribution was in-kind and not monetary. Please note that the post-general report for Cantor for Congress is accurate and that Cantor for Congress has taken steps to avoid these problems in the future.
